NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF CORPORATE EXISTENCE

RE: SANABEL AL KHEER, INC.
ID: .858-4

Virginia corporation law provides that the due date for a Domestic corporation to file its annual report each year is the last day of the anniversary month of the date of its Certificate of Incorporation. If the report is not filed before the last day of the fourth month immediately following the due date, the corporation's existence shall be automatically terminated. See Sections 13.1-752 (Stock Corporations) and 13.1-914 (Non Stock Corporations) of the Code of Virginia. According to the Commission's records the above named corporation failed to file its annual report before December 31, 2003, and, consequently, the corporation's existence was automatically terminated as of that date.

Among other things, this termination means that the corporation can no longer lawfully conduct business and its directors are required to liquidate its business affairs. As there may be other consequences resulting from this termination, it is suggested that the corporation, its officers, and directors seek the advice of counsel.

If the corporation wishes to reinstate, it may do so by complying with the applicable statutes. For more information concerning reinstatement, write to:

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
SANABEL AL KHEER, INC.

I, the undersigned acting as incorporator of a nonstock corporation as a private foundation, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation (the "Corporation") pursuant to Chapter 10 of Title 13.1 of the Code of Virginia.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the Corporation is "SANABEL AL KHEER, INC."

ARTICLE II

Term

The period during which the Corporation shall continue is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

Registered Agent and Office

The post office address of the initial registered office of the Corporation in the County of Fairfax is:

555 Grove Street, Suite 116
Herndon, Virginia 20170

and the name of the initial registered agent for the Corporation at such address is: M. Yaqub Mirza who is an INDIVIDUAL resident of Virginia and director of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV

Purposes

The Corporation is organized to promote the well-being of mankind throughout the world and for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including without limitation for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. To that end, such purposes shall, without limitation to the foregoing, specifically include:

Section 1. To engage in, establish and promote, and contribute to exclusively religious, cultural, educational charitable and scientific activities, programs, projects, organizations, institutions and funds.

MA508K01 SAM

Section 2. To receive, maintain and administer funds for religious, cultural, scientific, educational and charitable purposes, and to that end, to take and hold by bequest, trust, devise, gift, grant, purchase, lease or otherwise, either absolutely or jointly with any other person, persons, or corporation, any property, real, personal, tangible or intangible, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income thereof in such manner as, in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Corporation, or any laws applicable thereto.

Section 3. To hold and continue to hold as an investment, property which may be received by the Corporation so long as it deems proper, and to invest and reinvest in any securities or property, whether or not income-producing, deemed by it to be for the best interests of the Corporation, without and notwithstanding that the same may constitute leaseholds, royalty interests, patents, interest in mines, oil and gas wells, or timber lands, or other wasting assets, and without any responsibility for any depreciation or loss by or on account of such investments.

Section 4. To rent or lease any property of the Corporation for such time and upon such terms and for such price or prices as in its discretion and judgment may seem just and proper and for the best interest of the Corporation, irrespective of the provisions of any statute or of the termination of any trust.

Section 5. To sell and convey any of the property of the Corporation or any interest therein, or to exchange the same for other property for such price or prices and upon such terms as in its discretion and judgment may be deemed for the best interest of the Corporation and to execute and deliver any deed or deeds, receipts, releases, contracts or other instruments necessary in connection therewith.

Section 6. To make all repairs and improvements at any time deemed necessary and proper to and upon real property owned by the Corporation, and to build, construct, and complete any building or buildings upon such property which in its discretion and judgment may be deemed advisable and proper and for the best interests of the Corporation, and to determine the extent to which the cost of such repairs and improvements shall be apportioned as between corpus and income.

Section 7. To deduct, retain, expend, and pay out of any money belonging to the Corporation any and all necessary and proper expenses in connection with the operation and conduct of the Corporation, and to pay all taxes, insurance premiums, and other legal assessments, debts, claims or charges which at any time may be due and owing by, or which may exist against the Corporation.

Section 8. To vote upon all securities belonging to the Corporation, and to become a party to any stockholders agreements deemed advisable by them in connection with such securities.

Section 9. To consent to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment of or other change in any corporation, company or association, or to the sale or lease of the property thereof or any part thereof, any of the securities or other property of which may at the time be held by them hereunder, and to do any act or exercise any power with reference hereto that may be legally exercised by any persons owning similar property in their own right, including the exercise of conversion, subscription, purchase, or other options, the deposit, surrender, or exchange of securities, the entrance into voting trusts, and the making of agreements or subscriptions which they may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith, all without applying to any court for permission so to do, and to hold and redeem or sell or otherwise dispose of any securities or other property which they may so acquire.

Section 10. To compromise, settle, arbitrate, or defend any claim or demand in favor of or against the Corporation; to enforce any security agreements, or other obligations or liens held hereunder; and to enter upon such contracts and agreements and to make such compromise or settlements of debts, claims or controversies as they may deem necessary or advisable. To incur and pay the ordinary and necessary expense of administration of the Corporation or its Board of Trustees acting in such capacity, including (but not by way of limitation) reasonable attorney's fees, accountants' fees, investment counsel fees and the like.

Section 11. To act hereunder through an agent or attorney-in-fact in carrying out any of the powers and duties herein authorized.

Section 12. To borrow money for any purposes of the Corporation or incidental to the administration thereof and to secure the repayment thereof by granting a security interest in, or pledging or otherwise encumbering any part or all of the Corporation's property, or as part of the consideration given therefor, to assume a liability of the transferor or to acquire such property subject to a liability.
